

One must-have item for dog owners — a gadget called a Backseat Barrier — is designed to stop dogs from getting into the front seat and distracting the driver. It's easy to install and remove, and fits into any car or SUV.